Houston Bernard :: still clubdom's bad boy?

by Richard Frisbie
EDGE Contributor
Tuesday Jan 5, 2010

I listened to Houston Bernard's recordings and watched his videos in preparation for this interview. I couldn't get his chiseled abs or "foul-mouthed raps" out of my head. No wonder he was such a hit on the gay dance circuit! Here's an example:

Ride it Cowboy

Do you really want the dick
Tell me can you handle it
Come on get on top of it
Ride it cowboy just don't quit

Str8 Actin

I'm a straight actin' huge dick faggot
I'll fuck you in your mouth
I'll fill your cheeks up with warm jizz,
cockbol
I ain't pullin' out

Granted, that badboy foul-mouthed writing may be in the past, but it represents the Houston Bernard his early fans know. His more recent songs, crossover hits with their catchy hooks and driving beat, have been likened to "Euro Pop". They're danceable as hell, plus the lyrics can be overheard by your family without embarrassment.

Buff, with a wide smile

According to Steve Morse of the Boston Globe, Ralph's Diner is an ultra-cool, burger-and-chili joint that serves food until 1 a.m. . . (attached to a) . . . grotto-like bar inside a former factory building. I arranged to meet Houston Bernard there before he performed with his band, Bonfire Bandit.

The square jawed, blue eyed Oklahoman who stood to greet me when I walked into Ralph's Diner in Worcester, Mass, looked no more like a bad boy than Ralph's looks like any Diner I've ever been to. Houston Bernard is a buff 6'2 gorgeous guy with a wide smile. I try to reconcile this impression with all the stories I'd heard. Looking at him, part of me wanted them to be true.

I sat down across the table and decided I wanted to know him better.

Figuring I'd ask the toughest question first, I led with:

EDGE So, how wild were you?

Houston Bernard I'd really like to focus on the new album and the new projects, if anyone has any questions, they can email me though my site, and I may or may not answer them...Hell, I don't remember most of the stuff that went on, but I do have a huge stable of pictures, like this time in Houston, TX . . .

EDGE He stopped, remembering why he was here, I suppose, and it wasn't to talk about the past.

HB I'll tell you this. During the show, Balls, Chin, Lesbian, crowd chanting. I'm sure you're imaginative (enough) to figure it out on your own.
